Thurſday, October 17. 1706.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Oct. 16.

Madrid, Sept. 28.

SINCE the Enemy march'd back towards Valencia the King is gone to Aranjuez, where he arriv'd the 25th of this Month. The 26th he hunted in the Park, and the 27th it was deſign'd to give him the Diverſion of a Bull-Feaſt, for which the People had made Preparations, as a Teſtimony of Publick Joy. We have Advice, that M. de Legal in his Purſuit of the Enemy with a Detachment of the Army, fell upon their Rearguard, and beſides what were kill'd, and the Straglers to whom the Militis give no Quarter, 600 of their Men were made Priſoners, and 200 Horſes taken. We have further Advice, that after the Enemy had paſs'd the ſaid River, they bent their March firſt towards la Mancha, but finding the Paſſages poſſeſs'd by Troops the Duke of Berwick had ſent thither, and by the Manchegans, they were oblig'd to take another Route to get more ſafely to the Kingdom of Valencia. Our lateſt Accounts left the Enemy at Villanueva de la Xara, within 2 Leagues of Alarcon. Don Diego, and Don Fernando Thomas de Montoya with his Sons, and 50 Manchegans, march'd out of the laſt mention'd Place, having Intelligence that 64 Engliſh Horſe were to paſs that Way towards their Camp, with ſome Waggons that they guarded. He charg'd them vigorouſly, made the greateſt Part of them Priſoners, and took 3 Galeras or large Waggons, loaded with Cloth, Stockings, and Shooes, for cloathing the Engliſh Soldiers, with other Baggage. Among the Priſoners were ſome Perſons of Note. An Officer diſpatch'd by Don Carlos de San Gil and Don Franciſco Miguel del Puyeio who are at Tarragona, came to Occanna to inform the King, that the Enemy had abandon'd all the Frontier on that ſide, upon the firſt Motion of the Troops and Militia that drew together on the Frontier of Navarre. The Miquelets and Seditious of Saragoſſa had made an Excurſion, and were carrying back with them a great Booty of Cattle: The Militia of Navarre, ſupported by ſome regular Troops of the Garriſon of Jaca, charg'd them with ſo great Vigour, that after they had kill'd ſeveral of them, they ſav'd all the Cattle, took ſeveral Priſoners, and purſued the reſt to the Gates of Saragoſſa. The Inhabitants having deſir'd Arms, as many have been ſent from Almazan as are ſufficient to arm 2000 Men, and others that were left at Xadraque. Thoſe of Borja having been ſeveral times ſummon'd and threaten'd by the Rebels, have ſtill maintain'd themſelves, and having joyn'd the Militia of Navarre and of Rioja, have gain'd ſeveral Advantages over the Enemy. A Party had ſiez'd 1000 Head of Cattle, and thoſe Militia ſupported by 50 Dragoons ſent to them by Don Carlos de San Gil, retook all the Booty, and put the Guard to the Rout. The Inhabitants of the 3 Valleys of Ochagavia, Roncal, and Salazar, having been inform'd that 1200 Miqueleis were marching towards the Mountains, took Arms and march'd to Barguy, where they learnt that the Enemy had poſſeſs'd themſelves of the Town of Berdun, 3 Leagues below Jaca on the River of Aragon: Hereupon they are march'd under the Command of an Officer of the Caſtle of Jaca, with part of the Garriſon, 4 Cannon, and 2 Mortars, to beſiege the Rebels in Berdun before they can have Time to fortify themſelves. In the Way they have taken Villareal and ſeveral other Places, and have ſiez'd in the Mountains the Cattle of thoſe that have taken Arms againſt the King. The Marquis de Bay is march'd with 3 Regiments of Horſe, to rejoyn thoſe that were march'd before towards the Frontier of old Caſtile, to oppoſe the Motions which the Portugueſe make on that ſide. The Portugueſe have entred Salamanca, becauſe Don Antonio de la Vega had withdrawn the regular Troops, the Place being of no Defence. But 'tis hop'd, that on the Arrival of the Marquis de Bay who is declar'd Captain General of both Caſtiles, the Enemy will be oblig'd to retire. Avila, Segovia and the other neighbouring Towns, having ſent to deſire Arms and Succour, they are ſent to them. The Earl of Peterborow has depriv'd the Conde de Santa-Cruz, (who form'd the Enterprize againſt Murcia, which ſucceeded ill,) of the Title and Office of General and Adelantado of the Kingdom of Murcia, which Sir John Leake had given him, and which belongs to the Duke of Montalto as Heir of the Family de los Velez. The City of Corduba, beſides the Levies they have voluntarily made, (which Levies are gone into Andaluſia to form a Body with the Troops that are drawing together there under the Command of the Marquis de Villadarias,) and other Aid which they have given with extraordinary Zeal, have ſent 12000 Crowns to Murcia, with 2 Troops of Horſe; 8 Troops of Horſe, 3 Regiments of Foot, well cloath'd and arm'd, and 20000 Crowns in Money to the Army in Andaluſia; and a great Quantity of Ammunition and Proviſions for the Garriſon of Ceuta. The Corregidor of Corduba has ſince ſent the King 30000 Crowns, and 18 fine Horſes, and the City have ſent him 32 Horſes. The Nobility have at the ſame Time undertaken to maintain ſeveral Troops of Horſe, for the ſecurity of the City. Letters from Seville of the 21ſt adviſe, that M. Mahoni Major General, who defended the Caſtle of Alicant with great Vigour, was arriv'd at Cadix with his Garriſon on board 5 Engliſh Men of War, which have landed them there purſuant to the Capitulation.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Oct. 19.

Pampelona, October 2. The Inhabitants of Jaca, which is the only Place in the Kingdom of Arragon that held for King Philip, have open'd their Gates to

to a Body of Miquelets and some English and Dutch Troops who advanc'd thither to besiege it; and having joyn'd their Arms with them, have possess'd themselves of the Castle after one Day's attacking it: 'Tis said also they made the Garrison Prisoners of War; but of that we are yet uncertain.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 19.

Bourdeaux, October 3. The Marshal de Montrevel is encamp'd within 3 quarters of a League of this Place, with the regular Troops that were on the Coasts of Aunix and in the Country of Medoc, where he has left only the Regiment of Medoc. His Camp is form'd of the Regiments of Ferronaie and Brion Horse; Rane Dragoons, Claire Fontaine Foot, and 3 Swiss Battallions of Courten; and the new rais'd Regiment of Urban is within a League of his Camp. The Report continues, that these Troops only wait for Orders to march towards Roussillon. The Arriere-Ban and the Militia of the Country that were on the Coasts, are dismiss'd and sent home.

London, October 17.

On Tuesday Night arriv'd at Spithead the Barfleur, Sorlings, Tartar, and another Man of War. The second Lieutenant of the Barfleur came to Town Express Yesterday Morning; and we are inform'd reports, that the Barfleur springing a Leak in hard Weather, my Lord Rivers was carried on board the Association, and the Barfleur was order'd to return to England, with the said other 3 Men of War to guard her. They left the Fleet last Thursday Morning 56 Leagues North-West of the Lands-End.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Lisbon with Letters dated the 6th of this Month, which were landed at Falmouth the 13th.
